When Shillong Turns Pink

Each November, Shillong’s hills and avenues take on a soft pink hue as Himalayan cherry trees come into bloom. Music, food and cultural performances bring the city together over two festival days.

This private three-night journey combines Shillong sightseeing with time for both festival days. Stay at Leikyrpad Orchid Resort on twin sharing, with daily breakfast and dinner. Private transfers and sightseeing are arranged according to the itinerary.

THE FESTIVAL · 20 & 21 NOVEMBER 2026

Two Days in the Blossom

Himalayan cherry trees in bloom across the city, and a two-day programme of music, food and cultural performances.

Autumn Blossom

Himalayan cherry trees flower across Shillong's hills and avenues through November, giving the city its soft pink colour.

Food and Culture

Food and cultural programming form part of the two festival days, alongside the music.

Music and Performance

Live music and cultural performances run across both festival days, 20 and 21 November 2026.

Two Festival Days

Both festival days are built into the itinerary, alongside Shillong sightseeing on the same days.

PLEASE NOTE

Festival passes are not included and are available separately at actual cost, subject to category and availability.
